Praise the Lord with the crashing cymbal, Praise the Lord with the pipe and string, Praise the Lord With the joyful songs you sing. Praise the Lord on a weekday morning, Praise the Lord on a Sunday noon, Praise the Lord By the light of sun or moon.

Praise the Lord in the time of sorrow, Praise the Lord in the time of joy, Praise the Lord every moment; Nothing let your praise destroy. Praise the Lord in the peace and quiet, Praise the Lord in your work and play, Praise the Lord; Everywhere in every way.

The Invitatory

Officiant: Alleluia!

The Lord is risen indeed.

O come, let us worship.

People: Alleluia!

The Penitential Rite

Officiant: The sacrifice of God is a broken spirit: a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.

People: Seek the Lord while he wills to be found, call upon him when he draws near; let the wicked forsake their ways, and the evil ones their thoughts; and let them return to the Lord, and he will have compassion, and to our God, for he will richly pardon.

Officiant: If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. But if we confess our sins, God is faithful and just, and will forgive our sins and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Officiant: Dear friends in Christ, as we prepare to worship almighty God, let us with penitent and obedient hearts confess our sins, that we may obtain forgiveness by his infinite goodness and mercy.

Silence is kept. Everyone say together:

Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Officiant: Almighty God have mercy upon us, pardon and deliver us from all our sins, confirm and strengthen us in all goodness, and keep us in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People: Amen

Officiant: Lord, open our lips,

People: And our mouth shall proclaim your praise.

Officiant: O God, make speed to save us.

People: O Lord, make haste to help us.

All: Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit: as it was in the beginning, is now, and will be for ever. Amen.

Venite

Come, let us sing to the Lord; let us shout for joy to the rock of our salvation.

Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving and raise a loud shout to him with psalms.

For the Lord is a great God, and a great king above all gods. In God's hand are the caverns of the earth, and the heights of the hills are his also.

The sea is his for he made it, and his hands have moulded the dry land.

Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, and kneel before the Lord our maker. For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture and the sheep of his hand.

Oh, that today you would hearken to his voice!

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit:

As it was in the beginning, is now and will be for ever. Amen.

A Reading from the Book of Acts (5:27-32)

Acts 5:27-32

When they had brought the apostles, they had them stand before the council. The high priest questioned them, saying, "We gave you strict orders not to teach in this name, yet here you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and you are determined to bring this man's blood on us." Acts 5:27-32 - 1/3

But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than any human authority. The God of our ancestors raised up Jesus, whom you had killed by hanging him on a tree. God exalted him at his right hand as Leader and Saviour that he might give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins.

And we are witnesses to these things, and so is the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him."

People: Thanks be to God.

A Reading from the Revelation to John (1:4-8)

The Revelation To John 1:4-8

John, to the seven churches that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace from him who is and who was and who is to come, and from the seven spirits who are before his throne, and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth.

To him who loves us and freed us from our sins by his blood, and made us to be a kingdom, priests serving his God and Father, to him be glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen. Look! He is coming with the clouds; every eye will see him, even those who pierced him; and on his account all the tribes of the earth will wail. So it is to be. Amen. "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty.

The Offertory Hymn

All that I am, All that I do All that I'll ever have I offer now to you.

All that I dream, all that I pray.
All that I'll ever make
I give to you today.

(Refrain)

Take and sanctify these gifts For you honour, Lord. Knowing that I love and serve you is enough reward.

All that I am, All that I do All that I'll ever have I offer now to you.

We Say Together:

Hear O Israel, The Lord our God, the Lord is one. Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all you soul, with all your mind and with all your strength.

This is the first and great commandment.

The second is like it; you shall love your neighbor as yourself.

There is no commandment greater than these.

Amen.

Second Sunday of Easter – Year C

In this Eastertide we celebrate and proclaim the signs of Jesus, that all might believe that he is the Christ. Let us pray for all that God loves saying:

We pray for the church. For Todd our Bishop, and Rob our rector. That despite all that may divide us, that Christ's peace may be shared and experienced by the strengthening of belief.

Let us pray to the Lord.

We pray that all who have come to new birth through the waters of holy baptism and all who have received forgiveness of sins, may live in peace with each other. Let us pray to the Lord.

We pray for the sick and those who are in trouble this day. May they experience the healing power of the spirit of the risen Christ. Especially today we pray for those on our parish prayer list. Let us pray to the Lord.

We pray for this community of faith. That we who share this place, may taste and see the feast to come in the presence of the one who died and is alive forevermore. Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, we believe. Help our unbelief and hear us for the sake of the one who died for our sins and rose again for our justification; Jesus Christ, the living one, in whose name we pray.

Amen.

Lord's Prayer

(Songs of a Gospel People #10)

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done
On earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen

The Collect

Almighty and eternal God, the strength of those who believe and the hope of those who doubt, may we, who have not seen, have faith and receive the fullness of Christ's blessing, who is alive and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen
