The Proclamation of the Word

A Reading from the Book of Acts (9:1-6)

Acts 9:1-6

Meanwhile Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Acts 9:1

Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" He asked, "Who are you, Lord?"

The reply came, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do."

Reader: The word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 30

Refrain:

"Remember God's holiness and praise our God."

Psalm 30

I will exalt you, O God, because you have lifted me up and have not let my enemies triumph over me O my God, I cried out to you, and you restored me to health; You brought me up, O God from the dead.

Remember God's holiness and praise our God

Psalm 30

Sing praises to the Lord all you faithful Give thanks in holy remembrance. God's wrath is short, God's favour lasts a lifetime.

Weeping spends the night but joy comes in the morning.

Remember God's holiness and praise our God

Psalm 30

- Hear, O God, and have mercy upon me. O Lord, be my helper.
- You have turned my wailing into dancing You have put off my sack-cloth and clothed me with joy
- Therefore my heart sings to you without ceasing;
- O Lord, my God, I will give you thanks forever. Remember God's holiness

Chorus

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

The word of the Lord lasts forever. What is the Word that is living? It is brought to us through God's Son, Jesus Christ!

John 21:1-19

After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing. Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus.

Jesus said to them, "Children, you have no fish, have you?" They answered him, "No." He said to them, "Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off.

When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead. When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs."

A second time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time,

"Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep.

Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go." (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, "Follow me."

Reader: The Gospel of Christ.

People: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Chorus

Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia.

Prayers of the People

Third Sunday of Easter – Year C

Holy God, you have called us to follow in the way of your risen son. To care for those who are our companions on the way. Seeking to be true friends of all, we offer our prayers on behalf of the church and the world saying: Hear Our Prayer.

We pray for the church. For Todd our Bishop and for the community of parishes in the Diocese of Huron. Give your faithful people courage to follow the risen Jesus in obedience to you wherever we are called to witness.

Lord in your mercy,

We pray for our discipleship. As the disciples of Jesus ventured out at his word, so give us the faith to trust and obey his word in our lives as we pursue together the mission of God. Lord in your mercy,

We pray for those in need. The poor, hungry, the homeless. As the disciples of Jesus shared food with their master, so give us the generosity to share what we have with others. Lord in your mercy,

We pray for the leaders of the nation. As Jesus opened the eyes of his disciples, give vision to our leaders that they may lead the nations to justice, prosperity and peace for all. Lord in your mercy,

God of victory over death, your Son revealed himself again and again, and convinced his followers of his glorious resurrection. Grant that we may know his risen presence, feed his sheep and care for the lambs of his flock, until we join the hosts of heaven in worshipping you and praising him.

We ask all this in Jesus' name.

Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant: Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; God welcomes sinners and invites them to this table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Celebrant: Most merciful God,

People: we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, Have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

Prayer Over The Gifts

Creator of all, you wash away our sins in water, you give us new birth by the Spirit, and redeem us in the blood of Christ. As we celebrate the resurrection, renew your gift of life within us. We ask this in the name of Jesus Christ the risen Lord.

Amen.

Eucharistic Prayer # 1

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is indeed right that we should praise you, gracious God, for you created all things. You formed us in your own image: male and female you created us. When we turned away from you in sin, you did not cease to care for us, but opened a path of salvation for all people. You made a covenant with Israel, and through your servants Abraham and Sarah gave the promise of a blessing to all nations.

Through Moses you led your people from bondage into freedom; through the prophets you renewed your promise of salvation.

Therefore, with them, and with all your saints who have served you in every age, we give thanks and raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

Holy, Holy, Holy (Dufford)
Holy, Holy, Holy Lord.
God of Power and Might
Heaven and Earth are full of your Glory.
Hosanna, Hosanna on high.

Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord Hosanna in the Highest, Hosanna in the Highest, Hosanna, Hosanna on High.

Celebrant: Holy God, source of life and goodness, all creation rightly gives you praise.

In the fullness of time, you sent your Son Jesus Christ, to share our human nature, to live and die as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

Eucharistic Prayer 1-8/18

He healed the sick and ate and drank with outcasts and sinners; he opened the eyes of the blind and proclaimed the good news of your kingdom to the poor and to those in need. In all things he fulfilled your gracious will.

Eucharistic Prayer 1-9/18

On the night he freely gave himself to death,

our Lord Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: this is my body which is given for you.

Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said,

"Drink this, all of you: this is my blood of the new covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins.

Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me." Gracious God, his perfect sacrifice destroys the power of sin and death;

By raising him to life you give us life forever more.

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All: Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant: Recalling his death, proclaiming his resurrection, and looking for his coming again in glory, we offer you, Father, this bread and this cup.

Send your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts, that all who eat and drink at this table may be one body and one holy people, a living sacrifice in Jesus Christ, our Lord.

Through Christ, with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory is yours, almighty Father, now and for ever.

People: Amen.

I'm Building My House

I'm building my house, down by the riverside. There the cool waters flow, both day and night. When I'm thirsty I walk down by the riverside. Then I take a drink, to my heart's delight.

I'm Building My House-1/7

Chorus

I'm not thirsty any more, I'm not thirsty any more, Now I drink from the waters of life. I'm not thirsty any more, I'm not thirsty any more, Now I drink to my heart's delight.

There's plenty of room, Down by the riverside. There the cool waters flow, Both day and night You can build next to me Down by the riverside. We'll take a drink To our hearts' delight. 'm Building My House-3/7

Chorus

We're not thirsty any more, We're not thirsty any more, Now we drink from the waters of life. We're not thirsty any more, We're not thirsty any more, Now we drink to our heart's delight.

Bridge

If you are weary, And you don't know where to go To quench the thirsting in your soul. Come to the river, Let the healing waters flow Into your heart and make you whole !!

Verse 2 (repeat)

There's plenty of room, Down by the riverside. There the cool waters flow, Both day and night You can build next to me Down by the riverside. We'll take a drink To our hearts' delight. 'm Building My House-6/7
