Marching In Of The Colours

& Laying of the Wreaths

O Canada

O Canada! Our home and native land! True patriot love in all of us command. With glowing hearts we see thee rise, The true north strong and free! From far and wide, O Canada, we stand on guard for thee. God keep our land glorious and free! O Canada, we stand on guard for thee. O Canada, we stand on guard for thee.

They Shall Not Grow Old

Rev Rob: The evils of war will only be prevented in the future when people learn the lessons of history and remember the losses caused by war. May we pray that people everywhere will one day cry "Never Again" to events which mean the sacrifice of people's lives in conflict or their maiming in body mind or spirit. Let us take this moment to collectively join in this Act of Remembrance as we say together the famous lines from the poem "To the fallen" by Laurence Binyon:

People: They shall not grow old as we that are left grow old: Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning, We will remember them, We will remember them.

Rev Rob: We pray this Remembrance Day, for all who have labored for the cause of freedom and peace. For those who have made the ultimate sacrifice. For those who in life and death have preserved our living. We pray for the victims of war and for those who are left behind.

Loving God, grant to all your children, that they may rest in your peace. We make our prayers through Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace. Amen

In Flanders Fields

In Flanders Fields

In Flanders fields the poppies blow Between the crosses, row on row, That mark our place; and in the sky The larks, still bravely singing, fly Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

Lament

Let us Pray Together: O Lord the God of mercy, we pray for end to all wars and conflicts in the world. we pray for all the victims of war. For all who gave their lives in defence of freedom. In the Great war, World War II, Korea, the Gulf, Afghanistan, and

Act of Commitment

Rev Rob: Let us now pledge ourselves anew to the service of God and all of Gods good creation; that we may help, encourage, and comfort others, and support those working for the relief of the needy and for the peace and welfare of the nations of the earth.

People: Lord God our Father, we pledge ourselves to serve you and all humankind, in the cause of peace, for the relief of want and suffering, and for the praise of your name. Guide us by your Spirit; give us wisdom; give us courage; give us hope; and keep us faithful now and always. Amen

God Save The King

God save our gracious King, Long live our noble King, God save the King: Send him victorious, Happy and glorious, Long to reign over us: God save the King.

THE GATHERING OF THE COMMUNITY

Celebrant:

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, And the love of God, And the fellowship of the Holy Spirit, Be with you all.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Almighty God,

People: to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hidden. Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

We say together the Collect for today:

Father of all, we pray to you for those we love, but see no longer. Grant them your peace, let light perpetual shine upon them, and in your loving wisdom and almighty power, work in them the good purpose of your perfect will;

through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen.

Wisdom of Solomon 3:1-9

But the souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died, and their departure was thought to be a disaster, and their going from us to be their destruction; but they are at peace.

For though in the sight of others they were punished, their hope is full of immortality. Having been disciplined a little, they will receive great good, because God tested them and found them worthy of himself; like gold in the furnace, he tried them, and like a sacrificial burnt-offering he accepted them.

In the time of their visitation, they will shine forth and will run like sparks through the stubble. They will govern nations and rule over peoples, and the Lord will reign over them for ever.

Those who trust in him will understand truth, and the faithful will abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are upon his holy ones, and he watches over his elect.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 116 (For All Seasons)

Refrain:

"I love the Lord, who heard my cry,"
I love the Lord, who heard my cry."

Psalm 116 (For All Seasons)

I love the Lord, who has heard my voice, and listened to my supplication.

For the Lord has given ear to me whenever I have called.

The cords of death entangled me; the anguish of the grave came upon me.

I love the Lord, who heard my cry, I love the Lord, who heard my cry.

Psalm 116 (For All Seasons)

Turn again to your rest, O my soul, for the Lord has dealt well with you. For you have rescued my life from death, my eyes from tears and my feet from stumbling.

I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living.

I love the Lord, who heard my cry, I love the Lord, who heard my cry.

People: Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

John 6:37-40, 11:21-27

Everything that the Father gives me will come to me, and anyone who comes to me I will never drive away; for I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me. And this is the will of him who sent me, that I should lose nothing of all that he has given me, but raise it up on the last day. John 6:37-40. 11:21-27 1/4

This is indeed the will of my Father, that all who see the Son and believe in him may have eternal life; and I will raise them up on the last day.' Martha said to Jesus, 'Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask of him.'

Jesus said to her, 'Your brother will rise again.' Martha said to him, 'I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day.' Jesus said to her, 'I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?'

She said to him, 'Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, the one coming into the world.' Reader: The Gospel of Christ.

Prayers of the People

God alone is our help. We lift up our needs and the needs of the whole human family, saying:

Lord, have mercy.

For those who lead the people of God, that they may seek after integrity and be true to their call to service, we pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For Christians everywhere, that we may be rich in good works, and generously share what we have, we pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

For peace, a reduction of arms, and an end to war and terrorism, we pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

That our young people may learn to love charity, justice, and a gentle spirit, we pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

That our eyes may be open to see poverty and human need, and that seeing, we may act justly, we pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For the aged, the infirm, the lonely, the homeless, and for all who need help to live with dignity, we pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy.

For those who have asked for our prayers. For all those on our Parish Prayer list, especially today we hold up: Terry, Cavell, Karen C., Dan, Brian S., Robert S., and Philip W... Let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mercy.

Giver of all life, we ask you to sustain our life and the life of the world. Hear our cries for help. Make us as generous as you are in answering those who turn to you. We ask this in the name of Jesus, the Lord.

Amen.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant: Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; God welcomes sinners and invites them to this table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Celebrant: Most merciful God,

People: we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, Have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

People: Amen.

Prayer Over The Gifts

Gracious and righteous Lord, we are united in the love of Jesus Christ. Accept all we offer you this day, and bring us, with all your faithful people who have gone before us, into his eternal glory; who is Lord, now and for ever.

Amen.

Eucharistic
Prayer

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant: We give you thanks and praise, almighty God, through your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Redeemer. He is your living Word, through whom you have created all things.

By the power of the Holy Spirit he took flesh of the Virgin Mary and shared our human nature. He lived and died as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

In fulfilment of your will he stretched out his hands in suffering, to bring release to those who place their hope in you; and so he won for you a holy people.

He chose to bear our griefs and sorrows, and to give up his life on the cross, that he might shatter the chains of evil and death, and banish the darkness of sin and despair.

By his resurrection he brings us into the light of your presence.

Now with all creation we raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

Holy, Holy, Holy Lord (Eucharist Prayer)

Holy, Holy Lord
Lord of Power and might
Heaven and earth are full of your glory
Hosanna in the highest

Blest is the One who comes, in the name of The Lord Hosanna in the highest Hosanna in the highest Amen, Amen, Amen.

Holy and gracious God, accept our praise, through your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; who on the night he was handed over to suffering and death, took bread and gave you thanks, saying, "Take, and eat: this is my body which is broken for you."

In the same way he took the cup, saying, "This is my blood which is shed for you. When you do this, you do it in memory of me."

Remembering, therefore, his death and resurrection, we offer you this bread and this cup, giving thanks that you have made us worthy to stand in your presence and serve you. We ask you to send your Holy Spirit upon the offering of your holy Church. Eucharistic Prayer 2-12/14

Gather into one all who share in these sacred mysteries, filling them with the Holy Spirit and confirming their faith in the truth, that together we may praise you and give you glory through your Servant, Jesus Christ.

All glory and honour are yours, Father and Son, with the Holy Spirit in the holy Church, now and for ever.

People: Amen.

Lord's Prayer (to be said)

Our Father in heaven, Hallowed be your name, Your kingdom come, Your will be done On earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins As we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial And deliver us from evil, For the kingdom, the power And the glory are yours, Now and forever. Amen
