Lament

They Shall Not Grow Old

Rev Rob: The evils of war will only be prevented in the future when people learn the lessons of history and remember the losses caused by war. May we pray that people everywhere will one day cry "Never Again" to events which mean the sacrifice of people's lives in conflict or their maiming in body mind or spirit. Let us take this moment to collectively join in this Act of Remembrance as we say together the famous lines from the poem "To the fallen" by Laurence Binyon:

People: They shall not grow old as we that are left grow old: Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning, We will remember them, We will remember them.

In Flanders Fields

In Flanders Fields

In Flanders fields the poppies blow Between the crosses, row on row, That mark our place; and in the sky The larks, still bravely singing, fly Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae

Memories

A poem by Kaitlyn Gortzak Rev Rob: We pray this Remembrance Day, for all who have labored for the cause of freedom and peace. For those who have made the ultimate sacrifice. For those who in life and death have preserved our living. We pray for the victims of war and for those who are left behind.

Loving God, grant to all your children, that they may rest in your peace. We make our prayers through Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace. Amen

The Regimental Prayer

Rev Rob: Almighty God we humbly implore thy blessing on the Royal Canadian Regiment and all who serve therein. Help us to prove worthy to accept the high ideals and traditions of the past; to honor and revere the memory of those who have gone before us; to face our responsibilities in the future, in both peace and war, with courage, justice, love, honesty and faithfulness. Remove all greed, hatred, selfishness and envy from our thoughts that we may render true service to The Regiment, and for Thee our God; for our fellow man; and for the country. Amen

Regimental Prayer 1/2

Act of Commitment

Rev Rob: Let us now pledge ourselves anew to the service of God and all of Gods good creation; that we may help, encourage, and comfort others, and support those working for the relief of the needy and for the peace and welfare of the nations of the earth.

People: Lord God our Father, we pledge ourselves to serve you and all humankind, in the cause of peace, for the relief of want and suffering, and for the praise of your name. Guide us by your Spirit; give us wisdom; give us courage; give us hope; and keep us faithful now and always. Amen

The Proclamation of the Word

A Reading from the Letter to the Hebrews (9:24-28)

Hebrews 9:24-28

For Christ did not enter a sanctuary made by human hands, a mere copy of the true one, but he entered into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God on our behalf. Nor was it to offer himself again and again, as the high priest enters the Holy Place year after year with blood that is not his own; for then he would have had to suffer again and again since the foundation of the world. But as it is, he has appeared once for all at the end of the age to remove sin by the sacrifice of himself.

And just as it is appointed for mortals to die once, and after that the judgment, so Christ, having been offered once to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, not to deal with sin, but to save those who are eagerly waiting for him.

People: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 127 (Psalms for All Seasons)

Refrain: "Unless the Lord Builds The House, it comes to nothing."

Psalm 127 (Psalms for All Seasons)

Unless the Lord builds the house, their labour is in vain who build it. Unless the Lord watches over the city, in vain the sentinel keeps vigil.

It is in vain to rise so early and go to bed so late vain, too to eat the bread of toil for you, Lord, give sleep to your beloved.

Unless the Lord Builds The House, it comes to nothing.

Psalm 127 (Psalms for All Seasons)

Children are a heritage from the Lord and the fruit of the womb is a gift. Like arrows in the hand of a warrior are the children of one's youth.

Happy is the one whose quiver is full of them! Such a one will not be put to shame when contending with enemies foe at the house gate.

Unless the Lord Builds The House, it comes to nothing.

Mark 12:38-44

As he taught, he said, "Beware of the scribes, who like to walk around in long robes, and to be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and to have the best seats in the synagogues and places of honor at banquets! They devour widows' houses and for the sake of appearance say long prayers.

Mark 12:38-44-1/3

They will receive the greater condemnation." He sat down opposite the treasury, and watched the crowd putting money into the treasury. Many rich people put in large sums. A poor widow came and put in two small copper coins, which are worth a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury. For all of them have contributed out of their abundance; but she out of her poverty has put in everything she had, all she had to live on."

That our eyes may be open to see poverty and human need, and that seeing, we may act justly, we pray to the Lord. Lord, have mercy

For the aged, the infirm, the lonely, the homeless, and for all who need help to live with dignity, we pray to the Lord.

Confession and Absolution

Celebrant: Dear friends in Christ, God is steadfast in love and infinite in mercy; God welcomes sinners and invites them to this table. Let us confess our sins, confident in God's forgiveness.

Celebrant: Most merciful God, that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbours as ourselves.

We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, Have mercy on us and forgive us, that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Celebrant: Almighty God have mercy upon you, pardon and deliver you from all your sins, confirm and strengthen you in all goodness, and keep you in eternal life; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Prayer Over The Gifts

Eucharistic
Prayer

Celebrant: The Lord be with you.

People: And also with you.

Celebrant: Lift up your hearts.

People: We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Celebrant: We give you thanks and praise, almighty God, through your beloved Son, Jesus Christ, our Saviour and Redeemer. He is your living Word, through whom you have created all things.

By the power of the Holy Spirit he took flesh of the Virgin Mary and shared our human nature. He lived and died as one of us, to reconcile us to you, the God and Father of all.

In fulfilment of your will he stretched out his hands in suffering, to bring release to those who place their hope in you; and so he won for you a holy people.

He chose to bear our griefs and sorrows, and to give up his life on the cross, that he might shatter the chains of evil and death, and banish the darkness of sin and despair.

By his resurrection he brings us into the light of your presence.

Now with all creation we raise our voices to proclaim the glory of your name.

Hymn 722 Holy Holy (Eucharist) Holy, Holy, Lord God of power and might, heaven and earth are full, full of your glory Hosanna, Hosanna, Hosanna, Hosanna in the highest, Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, Hosanna, Hosanna, Hosanna Hosanna in the highest.

Holy and gracious God, accept our praise, through your Son our Saviour Jesus Christ; who on the night he was handed over to suffering and death, took bread and gave you thanks, saying, "Take, and eat: this is my body which is broken for you."

In the same way he took the cup, saying, "This is my blood which is shed for you. When you do this, you do it in memory of me."

Remembering, therefore, his death and resurrection, we offer you this bread and this cup, giving thanks that you have made us worthy to stand in your presence and serve you. We ask you to send your Holy Spirit upon the offering of your holy Church. Eucharistic Prayer 2-12/14

Gather into one all who share in these sacred mysteries, filling them with the Holy Spirit and confirming their faith in the truth, that together we may praise you and give you glory through your Servant, Jesus Christ.

All glory and honour are yours, Father and Son, with the Holy Spirit in the holy Church, now and for ever.

People: Amen.
